Mqhele NkiwaneCurriculum Vitae

I am a self-motivated, organized person and enjoy working in challenging environment where I can continuously learn and extend myself. I am able to work individually or as part of a team. For one course, I had an opportunity to work in a pair team in research as mentioned above supervised by Mr. Schabort. I enjoy learning new concepts hence I availed my self for this opportunity .I adjust quickly to change and very optimistic about my work.I have a fascination particularly in microbiology. I also enjoy nature walks and travelling so as to have an open mind as I meet people of different cultures.
